

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

CAMPUS STORES OF MASS., INC.,

Plaintiff,

v.

FOLLETT HIGHER EDUCATION GROUP, INC.

Defendant.

C.A. No. 05 CV 11116 NG

PLAINTIFF'S AMENDED MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(a), Plaintiff Campus Stores of Mass., Inc. ("Campus Stores") hereby moves for a preliminary injunction to enforce the restrictive covenants contained in a Confidentiality and Nondisclosure Agreement (the "Agreement") signed by Defendant Follett Higher Education Group, Inc. ("Follett") in connection with its potential acquisition of Campus Stores in 2003. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks to enjoin Follett from contacting, soliciting or accepting business from Campus Stores' customers, including, without limitation, Curry College.

As described more fully in Plaintiff's supporting memorandum of law and in the Amended Verified Complaint, filed herewith, Campus Stores is entitled to preliminary injunctive relief to enforce the restrictive covenants in the Agreement because it can demonstrate: (1) a likelihood of success on the merits of its claim that Follett breached, or is threatening to breach, the Agreement; (2) a substantial risk that Campus Stores will suffer irreparable harm in the absence of the requested injunction; and (3) that the gravity of the risk of harm to Campus

Stores, considered in the light of its chances of success, outweighs the risk of harm to Follett. Specifically, Follett has breached the Agreement by contacting, soliciting and accepting the business of Curry College, one of Campus Stores' customers. If Follett is permitted to contact and solicit Campus Stores' customers, it would be able to obtain an unfair competitive advantage based on its knowledge of Campus Stores' Confidential Information, including its pricing, commission structure, contract terms, and staffing models. As such, the bidding process for the renewal of Campus Stores existing accounts would unfairly favor Follett, thus resulting in irreparable harm to Campus Stores.

Given Follett's calculated efforts to raid Campus Stores' customer base and its conscious disregard of its clear contractual obligations, an injunction is necessary to prevent Campus Stores from suffering the irreparable harm that would result if Follett is permitted to benefit from its violation of the Agreement.

WHEREFORE, Campus Stores respectfully requests that the Court grant its Motion for Preliminary Injunction and enter in the Order in the form attached thereto as Exhibit A.

Respectfully Submitted,

CAMPUS STORES OF MASS., INC.
